 - iv. Disaffiliation/De-Recognition by the International Federation of the Sport
2. Whatever the decision of the I.O.A. General Assembly, it must be supported by two-third majority votes of the Members present and voting.

3. As a general rule, before any important resolution or a measure such as mentioned above, affecting a National Sports Federation is taken by the IOA, the IOA will first inform, consult and co-ordinate with the International Federation concerned. IOA must respect the autonomy of the National Sports Federations as independent legal entity and these provisions are subject to the regulations of the International Sports Federations concerned.
4. Before taking any decision, it will be imperative that the IOA consult the concerned International Federation in order to avoid any potential conflict with the International Federation concerned.
5. No decision can be taken except in consultation with the concerned International Sports Federation. IOA must respect the autonomy of the National Sports Federation and the concerned National Sports Federation must abide by regulation of their respective International Sports Federation to which they are affiliated.

XXVIII. State Olympic Association

- a) The State Olympic Associations should formulate their Constitution in consonance with the IOA Constitution. No provision of constitution of State Olympic Association should be in contradiction to the Constitution of the IOA.
- b) The State Olympic Association will elect their office bearers who are residents of that state and only out of the State Sports Associations affiliated to the National Sports Federations as recognized by the IOA.
- c) No office bearers of one Sports Association in a State will be a member of another State Sports Association.
- d) The State Olympic Association will also have an Athletes' Commission. The General body of State Olympic Association should have 2 (two) members from the Athletes' Commission elected from amongst them and one member in the Executive Body of State Olympic Association.
- e) It would be mandatory for State Sports Associations to have all their disputes resolved through the aegis of Arbitration Commission set up by the Indian Olympic Association. Under no circumstances any member of the State Olympic Association would resort to litigation in a court of law. In the Constitution it would be mandatory for State Olympic Association to include a provision that anyone going to the Court contrary to the provisions of State Olympic Association will entail sanction and disciplinary action.
- f) The State Olympic Associations would be responsible for conduct of State Games every alternate year and National Games as and when allotted in the best possible manner without any interference.

g) The State Olympic Associations for the previous year should submit their annual accounts by 31 December of each year duly audited and approved by their General Assembly. They would also submit their list of members of their General Assembly and office bearers before and after election is held to the IOA.

h) The affiliated State Olympic Associations will abide by the Constitution of IOA.

XXIX. National Sports Federations

a) The National Sports Federation will have their autonomy. Their constitution should be in consonance with the constitution of their respective International Sports Federation. None of the provisions of constitution of State Sports Associations should be in contradiction to the constitution of International Sports Federations.

b) The National Sports Federations should submit their annual accounts by 31 December each year for the previous financial year duly audited and approved by their General Assembly.
